

FAQ

- When and how will I find out if I've been selected?

Your application is currently being reviewed by our team.

We will email you between 20 September and 20 December 2023 with a final answer about your application.

All applicants will be sent an answer before the end of 2023.

- Will Paris 2024 cover my accommodation, transport and meals?

We offer volunteering opportunities across the whole of France and will ensure that volunteers are offered assignments at venues close to where they live or to the locations where they will be staying during the Games, as per the address given on their application forms.

Paris 2024 will not cover volunteer accommodation costs.

It is up to each volunteer to find their own accommodation, should they need it.

Volunteers will have their transport costs covered for travelling to and from their assignment venue on local public transport.

No other travel costs will be covered by Paris 2024.

Paris 2024 will provide volunteers with one meal per assignment day. Any volunteers on duty in venues that do not have mass catering areas will be given a volunteer meal voucher.

- Where can I find my registration number?

You can find your registration number in your volunteer portal and in our emails.

It's a seven-digit number starting with 1.

- Do you interview everyone?

It may be the case that the information you provide in your application allows us to process it without having to interview you.

However, if you indicated in your application that you have special needs because of a disability, we may need to talk to you.

We may also need to speak to you if your application has been earmarked for a particular assignment and we need to check you have the skills we are looking for.

In both of these cases, we will contact you by email.

- If selected, will I receive training for my assignment?

Yes, we will invite you to follow a training programme (online and in-person training), that will allow you to prepare for your assignment.

The training programme for the Olympic and Paralympic Games will be launched in the second quarter of 2024.

- Will the organisers help with my visa application?

If your application is successful, you will receive a formal offer from us.

You should check with your embassy or consulate whether this document is enough for you to obtain your visa.

We will not get involved in the visa application process.

Paris 2024 will not cover any visa application fees.

